

AJM GROUP

Report - Bribery, Corruption

Gifts, and Donations

Definition:

A bribe is a token - often in the form of money - given to someone to dishonestly persuade them to act in the best interest of the giver.

Example:

An individual working for Organization B who gives cash to someone in Organization A in exchange for a favor is said to be giving a bribe to the individual from Organization B.

Requirements:

- You shall not accept bribes, gifts, or donations in exchange for favors or business.