

AJM GROUP

Report - Maintaining

Financial Records

Definition:

Financial records are formal documents representing the financial activity of an individual or corporation.

Example:

Company A is required to maintain records of income and expenses to operate legally.

Requirements:

- You shall maintain all appropriate financial records as dictated by applicable statutory and regulatory requirements.