Report – Fair Dealing with Vendors and Suppliers

Definition:

Engaging in fair business practices means observing all formal written agreements with other individuals or business entities, and being respectful and transparent in business transactions.

Example:

Company A and Company B entered a partnership to run a theme park. If Company B manipulates financial information to ensure they are receiving more than their agreed upon share of profits, they are violating fair business practices.

Requirements:

- You shall engage in fair business practices with vendors and suppliers at all times.
