

AJM GROUP

Report – Packaging Material

Definition:

Packaging material refers to any material used to cover or protect final goods in preparation for distribution and sale. Eco-friendly packaging is packaging that minimizes waste and uses environmentally friendly materials.

Example:

Company A, a soap manufacturer, packages its soaps in recycled paper, an eco-friendly alternative to plastic.

Requirements:

- You shall use eco-friendly packaging material wherever possible